Co-Op Gas Station is Friend to Zion
If you are filling up your gas tank at the Co-op gas station in Armstrong, mention the number #20521, and Zion United Church will reap the benefits. Each time #20521 is mentioned with a purchase, our church will receive a percentage back in the form of a cheque at the end of the year.

Askew's also provides Zion United with a 7% bonus when you purchase your grocery cards here at the church. Just contact Jean Miskiman. Askew's is thrilled to not be paying bank card or credit card fees on our purchases. It's a Win/Win!

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!
3rd Notice IPE Mtg.
Rod Gilmer has scheduled this very important meeting to discuss the IPE tonight, September 27th, at 7pm in the church lounge.

If you had any involvement in this huge fundraiser, and would like to offer suggestions or comments, please try to attend. Your input is important.

Wayne Kiefer reminds all the men that our popular "Men's Breakfast" is Saturday, October 14th. Hot Coffee is ready at 8am. Come to share in the cooking and the eating!

Just a note—who has more fun than our Choir members? Good news is that they are starting again. Contact Lana O'Brien and she'll save you a seat! 250-308-4821

Camp Mac's clean-up-shut-down this Saturday, Sept. 30th.

As usual, all hands are welcome for a day of work and play...

lunch will be provided!

The first boat will leave the dock at 9am and is on-going as needed. If the boat is on the other side, please honk your horn THREE times.

Normally we have the work done between 2 and 3pm, but an earlier return can be arranged.

Most tools are there but you may want to bring some gloves.

Thanks, hope to see you there—

Eleanor Kiefer
