Worship at Zion promises to be a wonderful and varied experience this Fall!

A group of very talented individuals are leading the services while the Ministry Search Team seeks to call a new minister.

Guest ministers Rev. Heather Burton and Rev. Donald Schmidt will share the schedule as their time allows, supplemented by Lindsay Lundquist, Louise Burton, Rev. Wendy Adams, and Rev. Lorraine Powell.

This Sunday, September 5, is the first in this series, and Lindsay Lundquist, who you will recognize from her usual role as Musician at Saint Andrews, will be leading worship.

Leona

Lindsay Lundquist has been a musician at Saint Andrew's United Church in Enderby for 21 years. She enjoys leading worship and feels that she has been led in this direction, much to her surprise! Lindsay is an award-winning singer/songwriter/actor and is known for writing/directing/producing original dinner theaters as fundraisers for MacKenzie Camp. She is a self-confessed idealist and an unabashed optimist who believes that life is too short not to laugh.

Zion United Church was blessed to have Rev. Wendy Adams lead us in worship on Aug 29th.

ZION UNITED CHURCH BOOTH at ARMSTRONG FALL FAIR

The Community Round Up has been Cancelled due to the uncertainty of the COVID situation . Our opportunity to participate is gone with that decision. I want to thank those who enthusiastically agreed to be part of our effort. We will continue to seek opportunities to participate in activities & events that give us a positive presence in our community.
